Shaping the Learning

What's your line up?

The basic line up for a pop/rock band is usually...

Image and Album Cover

You need to decide what your band's image will be and what type of clothes will they wear on stage?

Also design their album art – think about album art that you have seen (examples below).

What will your Band be called?

One or two word names often work best (like Queen or Little Mix).

It needs to be memorable.

It might reflect the genre of music your band is playing and fit in with their overall image.

You should also make up names for each fictional person in the band (e.g. "the lead singer is called Suzie, etc)
